International Conference on Community Empowerment and Engagement 2024

In a digital world where communities face multifaceted challenges, the International Conference on Community Empowerment and Engagement (ICCEE) stands as of innovation, collaboration, and empowerment. ICCEE is a global gathering that brings together thought, scholars, practitioners, and community advocates to explore, discuss, and envision new paradigms for community development and engagement. The theme of ICCEE is Media, Culture, and Communication in the Digital Society.

This conference is the 3rd ICCEE which aimed to explore innovative strategies and best practices in community empowerment and engagement. Through engaging keynote presentations, thought-provoking panel discussions, interactive workshops, and paper presentations, ICCEE provides a comprehensive view of the latest research, initiatives, and success stories in the field. Attendees will have the opportunity to connect with like-minded individuals, form collaborations, and forge lasting partnerships to drive positive change in communities worldwide.

ICCEE transcends boundaries and disciplines, addressing critical complex relationship between media, culture, and communication in the digital society, and they provide valuable directions for research and exploration in this field. Join us at ICCEE to be a part of a global movement dedicated to strengthening communities, fostering resilience, and empowering individuals to take an active role in shaping a brighter future for all. Together, we can turn ideas into actions and create lasting impacts on the communities we serve.
